)	DETENTION HEARING vs.)
)
Tina May Ganley,)
)	Case No. 4:15-cr-069 Defendant.)

The court set a detention hearing for defendant Tina May Ganley for April 8, 2015. On April 7, 2015, the parties contacted the court and advised that they had come to an agreement to release defendant subject to conditions. The court held a telephone conference to discuss the agreement. Attorney Ashley A. Flagstad appeared on defendant's behalf. AUSA David D. Hagler appeared on the government's behalf. Probation Officer Bobby Wiseman also participated in the call.

During the conference call, the parties agreed that defendant should be released subject to a number of conditions, including the condition that she reside at a residential facility. The parties recognized that space at a residential facility is not immediately available and further agreed that defendant will remain in custody until space becomes available. Because the parties and the probation officer agreed the proposed release conditions were appropriate, the court determined it was not necessary to convene the detention hearing. Accordingly, the detention hearing set for April 8, 2015 at 10:00 AM is CANCELLED. The court will issue an order for temporary detention. When space is available at a residential facility, the court will issue an order releasing defendant subject to the agreed upon conditions.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 7th day of April, 2015.
